ACEC members invited to 88th Annual Meeting Drive-Through September 14

POSTVILLE – Allamakee-Clayton Electric Cooperative (ACEC) will hold its 88th Annual Meeting Monday, September 14, from 1:30-6:30 p.m. at the Postville headquarters, 229 Highway 51, Postville. The meeting will be held in a drive-through format.

The Board of Directors and employees invite all Co-op members to participate in the Annual Meeting. Each member will have the opportunity to vote, receive a complimentary gift and take home a hot to-go meal and frozen yogurt, while supplies last. Members are asked to enter through the south (main) driveway, where a board member will greet and direct participants. ACEC staff and directors will guide members into the garage to vote and receive their gift.

Cooperative members received their ballots in their Annual Report, mailed in August. Those who didn't receive their Annual Report are asked to contact the Co-op office at 563-864-7611. Members can vote by mail, drop it off at the office or in the drop box in the south driveway or during the Annual Meeting drive-through. All mailed ballots must be received at the Co-op before September 14, 2026.

Candidates for the Board are:

District A – Dan Byrnes; Kerry Troendle; Cindy Heffern, incumbent
District C – Peggy Connor; Greg Formanek, incumbent

The Board of Directors will elect board officer positions during their September board meeting.
